

Project Management and Contracting System

The contracting and project management system contains the ability to implement administrative and financial plans for projects and implement them on the ground until

Access to ready units that can be sold and starting with purchasing the land

- Developing a technical, administrative and financial work plan for projects and items.
- A financial and technical plan can be developed for the project.
- The ability to extract any financial extract according to the percentage of completion of work for subcontractors
- The distinguished system allows you to put the specifications booklet for the proposed estimate.
- The estimate can be analyzed partially or completely.
- The distinguished system can divide the project in terms of stages, for example (infrastructure - foundational stage - executive stage for units)
- The distinguished system's ability to calculate the quantities of different items for each item of the contracting items. (For models - for units - for sectors - for the project).
- The distinguished system works on the accuracy and speed of following up on work from (disbursement of raw materials, machinery and equipment and follow-up).
- Ease of following up on the units being implemented from a perspective (technical and delivery

 info@three3axis.online

 01124485358

 No 168. Alzommar Lake , First Floor
In front Of Fasial Metro Station

times).

تسجيل الضريبي رقم: 292_800_543

pg. 1

سجل تجاري رقم: 31592

- The distinguished system works on comparing the budget Estimated and actual project costs in case of implementing the work from within the company
- Extracting extracts for the subcontractor and linking them to the accounts and financial movement.
- The distinguished system allows senior management to develop administrative and technical work

info@three3axis.online

01124485358

No 168. Alzommar Lake , First Floor
In front Of Fasial Metro Station

FOLLOW US
Three Axis Co.

